PRIVACY & EXCLUSIVITY

When you book Boyne Hill House, the entire estate is yours exclusively for the duration of your event so you can enjoy total privacy and a break away from your busy workplace and daily to-do list.

Set in 35 acres of gardens and parklands with vistas over the Boyne River, you get all the benefits of a private country setting while being only 35 minutes from Dublin and 45 minutes from Dublin Airport.

You also have the added convenience of on-site accommodation with 43 rooms in the Manor House and Courtyard Mews.

SPACE TO INSPIRE & COLLABORATE

From the spectacular grounds to beautifully appointed meeting rooms, we can tailor your space and equip you with everything you need to inspire fresh thinking, lively engagement and creative collaboration.

COMFORTABLY LUXURIOUS

Full of period glamour, the Manor House comprises 8-bedroom suites, elegant drawing and dining room with open log fires, intimate cocktail bar and more.

Adjoining the Manor House is a traditional style country bar and a restaurant style banqueting suite overlooking the River Boyne. Also on-site is an additional 35 guest rooms set around a picturesque courtyard.

RELAX & UNWIND

When the working day is done, the stunning setting and excellent amenities offer guests a chance to relax and unwind.

Enjoy a beautiful nature walk through the parklands and Victorian walled gardens or a spot of fishing on the River Boyne.

Our latest addition is the Woodland Soak & Sauna - a wonderful way to relax with its outdoor heated whirlpool, sauna, changing room and on-site refreshments.

In the Manor House, you can enjoy a movie in the cinema room or a game of snooker in the games' room.

FUEL THE IMAGINATION

Great food is essential to keeping your team happy, focussed and energised. Our Events Team can help you design a bespoke menu for a delicious dining experience and ensure tasty culinary delights throughout your stay. Boyne Hill House has a well earned reputation for food excellence using only the best seasonal produce sourced from local and Irish artisanal suppliers.

AT YOUR SERVICE

Impeccable service with a genuine personal touch, our Event Team and staff of Boyne Hill House take care of every detail to make your event extra special and enjoyed by every participant.

“

As someone who runs my own consulting and coaching business I find myself in a lot of meeting & workshop venues... so it is with the assurance of many experiences that I can say Boyne Hill House is a very special place.

From a workshop venue perspective I appreciated;

- The privacy of the main meeting room and availability of adjacent break out rooms where we wouldn't meet anyone else
- The attention to detail and professionalism from staff was truly stand out
- The catering was exceptional, from the homemade scones and brown bread to the spectacular dinner.
- And with an option to have an overnight stay the location is great to bringing teams together no matter their usual occasion.
- Outside Dublin and literally 5 minutes from the motorway is also a plus.

The grounds are also beautiful and perfect for team building activities or indeed as many of my workshop attendees found to cater for their exercise routine.

I wouldn't hesitate to recommend this beautiful location. It's five stars from me.”

“

The IRFU recently booked Boyne Hill House for some company away days. It is the perfect place to hold your companies off site meetings. The venue is absolutely stunning, the location is great and the grounds are perfect for a walk or outdoor group activity.

The staff are wonderful, no ask is too much and the food is just amazing.

I have gone to many off site meetings and away days over the years but there is no doubt that Boyne Hill House is a very special place. It is definitely a personal favourite of mine.

5 stars from us!”

If you are looking to immerse your team in an away-from-the-office tranquil setting then Boyne Hill House is the place for you!

Goosebump had the pleasure of holding our two-day workshop in the beautiful surrounding of Boyne Hill House. We were spoilt from the moment we arrived til the moment we left. We had an action-packed agenda for the two days, and it never felt like work as we were totally spoiled. Food was delicious, rooms spacious and comfortable, plenty of space for breakout areas, a walled garden, and a walk by the Boyne to gather your thoughts.

The resounding request when left was, please can we make it an annual event! Highly recommended.”

“

I have worked in hundreds of country house hotels over the years and none have captured my heart quite like Boyne Hill House.

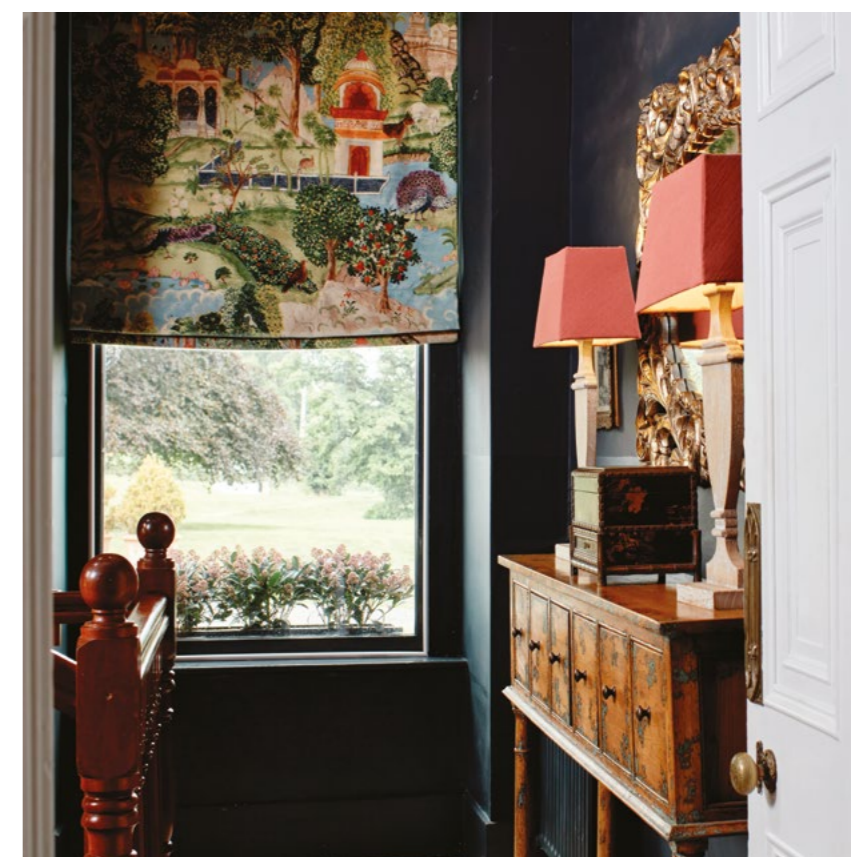

The buildings and grounds are quite exquisite. Stunning and yet tranquil.

But for me what sets it apart are the people. They are all so generous, caring and supportive. The service levels are extraordinary. But what makes it truly magical is how everybody it's so genuine and human and can't do enough for you.

I was very sad to leave Boyne Hill House, but my soul was full again as was my stomach (I can still taste that amazing bread!). Can't wait to come back..”
